Additional classes may be added to Architas Selection Equity in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank.

The base currency of the Architas Selection Equity is Euro.

The Architas Selection Equity is subject to the overall management of the Manager who in turn appoints the Investment Manager. The Investment Manager will be responsible for the investment of assets of the Architas Selection Equity based on its investment style. The Investment Manager is not limited as to the investment style of an Investment Manager that it may select. The Manager may, itself, also manage all or a specified allocation of the Architas Selection Equity.

Profile of a Typical Investor

Architas Selection Equity is suitable for investors seeking to maximise total return from income and capital growth over a medium to long-term horizon and who are willing to accept a medium to high level of volatility.

ARCHITAS SELECTION EQUITY

Investment Objective

Architas Selection Equity seeks to maximise total return from income and capital growth mainly through investing indirectly or directly in equity and/or equity-related securities.

Investment policy

Architas Selection Equity will seek to gain exposure to a wide variety of equity and/or equity-related securities. The equity and/or equity-related securities to which Architas Selection Equity may gain exposure can be denominated in any currency. The Investment Manager will utilise its extensive research and market insight to seek out opportunities for outperformance through asset allocation decisions as determined by the Investment Manager in its discretion.

The Investment Manager will carry out qualitative risk assessments when constructing the Architas Selection Equity portfolio by selecting complimentary investments that strike the best balance in its view between risk and potential return. Research tools may be used by the Investment Manager to analyse the historic volatility and correlation of returns of potential investments and to examine how overall portfolio risk may vary as weightings change.

In addition, the Investment Manager will carry out quantitative screening assessments utilising a proprietary approach designed to provide it with an understanding of how investment performance was achieved and to highlight consistency in delivering returns. This process will assist the Investment Manager to filter the available universe of potential investments in constructing the portfolio.

Architas Selection Equity is not subject to any limitation on the portion of its assets that may be exposed, through investment, to any one country, region or sector or asset class; but it is expected to be mainly (greater than 50%) exposed to equities and/or equity-related securities.

In order to achieve its objective, Architas Selection Equity will invest in Eligible CIS or make direct investments (as described below). The Eligible CIS in which Architas Selection Equity will invest will have underlying investments which may reflect either direct investment in, or exposure to, the following:

Equities: The Architas Selection Equity may obtain equity or equity-related exposure by investing in large cap equities, medium cap equities, small cap equities, common stocks, preferred stocks, warrants, American Depository Receipts and Global Depository Receipts.

Money Market Instruments. The Architas Selection Equity may invest in cash, cash equivalents, or short-term fixed-income obligations, (including money market instruments and which shall include money market collective investment schemes which are Eligible CIS, certificates of deposits and commercial paper).

Financial Indices. The constituents of financial indices in which the Architas Selection Equity may invest directly or to which it may gain exposure (through the use of FDI) may deliver equity, debt, money market, commodity, volatility, credit, inflation or real estate exposure and will meet the requirements of the Central Bank for financial indices.

Real Estate. The Architas Selection Equity may obtain indirect exposure to global real estate and/or the global real estate industry through equity securities of global real estate investments trusts ("REITs") or via equity securities of global mortgage REITs or other global real estate industry-related companies, including real estate operating companies.

Commodities: The Architas Selection Equity may obtain indirect exposure to commodities through the use of FDI on commodity indices cleared by the Central Bank and investing in Eligible CIS. The Fund may also seek commodity-related exposures through investment in equities of commodity producers or other commodity-related issuers.

FDI. The Architas Selection Equity may use FDI including warrants, futures, options (including options on futures) and forward currency exchange contracts for direct investment purposes in order to gain long or synthetic short exposure, to take active risk positions or to enhance returns in relation to any of the asset classes listed above, to interest rates, inflation-related asset classes and / or dividends or for efficient portfolio management purposes (i.e. to hedge risk). Architas Selection Equity's maximum synthetic short exposure is not anticipated to exceed 20% of Net Asset Value, while its maximum long exposure (direct and/or synthetic) is not anticipated to exceed 150% of Net Asset Value.

Some of the Eligible CIS may be leveraged from time to time. The Eligible CIS in which Architas Selection Equity will invest in will be selected using qualitative and quantitative risk assessments that are determined by the Investment Manager. The Architas Selection Equity portfolio may be entirely invested in units or shares in Eligible CIS and may also invest in other Funds of the Trust in accordance with the conditions of Appendix III to the Prospectus.

In addition to the investments in the above via Eligible CIS, Architas Selection Equity may also invest up to 30% of its Net Asset Value directly in equities (such as common or preferred stocks), short term liquid assets such as money market instruments, as defined in accordance with the Central Bank Requirements and which include UCITS and acceptable alternative investment funds money market collective investment schemes and unlisted securities in accordance with the UCITS requirements.

Architas Selection Equity may use exchange-traded FDI traded on Regulated Markets such as Futures (including index Futures) and Options (including Options on indices) to gain efficient exposure to the underlying investments outlined above, to reduce risk through hedging and/or to increase returns. Architas Selection Equity may also invest in over-the-counter (OTC) FDI such as Swaps (including total return swaps), Options (including options on indices) to gain efficient exposure to the underlying investments outlined above, to reduce risk and to increase returns and Forward Foreign Currency Contracts (to gain exposure to currencies or to hedge interest rate or currency exposure) with Eligible Counterparties.

In relation to total return swaps (which may be used by Architas Selection Equity in order to gain exposure to financial indices) the Manager expects that such transactions will apply to 0% of the Net Asset Value of Architas Selection Equity, however Architas Selection Equity may enter into such transactions up to 50% of its Net Asset Value.

It is not the current intention of Architas Selection Equity to use FDI and it will not do so until a risk management process ("RMP") has been submitted and cleared by the Central Bank. Architas Selection Equity will only utilise FDI which are included in a RMP cleared by the Central Bank.

Architas Selection Equity may enter into securities lending, repurchase and/or reverse repurchase agreements solely for the purposes of efficient portfolio management in accordance with the provisions of the Central Bank Requirements and Appendix II to the Prospectus. Details on the utilisation of these transactions will be contained in the Architas Selection Equity annual report.

Global exposure of Architas Selection Equity will be measured and monitored using the commitment approach.
